

FIRE BIBLE Student Edition

Frequently Asked Questions of BIBLE ALLIANCE DONORS and other SPONSORS

- 1. How are the Campus Missionary (CM) copies being distributed? The first CM copies of the FIRE BIBLE Student Edition (FBSE) are being distributed in the August 10th Friday night missionary commissioning service at the General Council in Indianapolis, Indiana. Only those Campus Missionary students who acknowledge a calling, commitment and accountability to their campus as a campus missionary will be commissioned with a FBSE. Every effort is being made to guard against cheap commitments “just so I can get a free FBSE.” Distribution of the CM copies beyond the national CM commissioning in Indianapolis will primarily flow through the ministry of His Story, Inc., an AGUSM Scripture distribution organization that has a rich history for successfully distributing hundreds of thousands of copies of the Book of Hope through Campus Missionaries in the United States over the past decade. A national database partnership between Youth Alive and His Story enables a seamless distribution of these CM copies of the FBSE directly to Campus Missionaries through Youth Alive’s online CM enrollment, training and accountability system. This system is currently operative and will soon be effectively enhanced for the Fall of 2007. This system provides for every CM enrolled to receive a copy of the FBSE and prohibits the error of “duplicate” copies to the same CM student.
- 2. Does every student who desires a “Campus Missionary copy” of the FBSE receive one? No, the CM copies are reserved for missionary students to America’s secondary schools. Careful attention is being given to protect the high calling of Campus Missionaries and the integrity of donor investment for this evangelistic ministry to lost students in America’s 65,000 secondary schools.
- 3. Why is the FBSE available for retail purchase too? While the FBSE was designed for Campus Missionary students, it is a wonderful Bible for any Christian or seeker. As a CM copy donor or sponsor you can be assured that your investment is providing the FBSE to Campus Missionary students across the United States but has also made this a great Bible option for others seeking deeper answers and knowledge of God and Spirit-filled living. Non-Campus Missionaries may purchase copies of the FBSE via www.gospelpublishing.com. The retail sale of the FBSE enables further empowerment of the FBSE to Campus Missionaries and campus missions.
- 4. May I have a copy of the FIRE BIBLE Student Edition? Yes, your gracious and visionary giving is deeply appreciated. It is a small way to say “thank you” for empowering the development of this Bible designed especially for Campus Missionaries.
- 5. Where can I learn more about the FBSE and its growing number of supporting resources? If you haven’t already discover it, visit www.fbse.ag.org to learn more about the FBSE. A host of growing resources are
