George Edgerly Memorial Scholarship

$1,000 Scholarship

Known to many as "the father of Bible Quiz," George Edgerly may have been one of the best known voices of the Assemblies of God Bible Quiz ministry. George attended his first Bible Quiz national finals in Memphis, Tennessee, in 1963, and started his first of many teams shortly after.

Passionate to see the Word of God poured into the lives of people, George coached Bible Quiz in Gray, Iowa, in the mid- to late-1960s. He later coached Park Crest Assembly of God in Springfield, Missouri, and First Pentecostal Assembly of God in Ottumwa, Iowa, to multiple National Finals appearances, leading the Park Crest team to the 1992 national Bible Quiz championship.

George also served in Assemblies of God local, district and national administration and pastoral leadership throughout his life, co-creating the Junior Bible Quiz ministry during his time at the national office. George Edgerly was an avid question writer, the co-author and developer of the Junior Bible Quiz Fact Pack, and author of the Teen Bible Quiz Coaches Manual and many Teen Bible Quiz study guides. For many years, production of Bible Quiz materials for the Assemblies of God took place in George's garage and later in his small print shop.

In 2015, George and Waydene Edgerly were honored for 50 years of service to the Bible Quiz community. In his own words, George exclaimed, "I have coached 14 career missionaries, plus many pastors and pastor's wives. Quiz has gotten a lot of God's kids into God's Word, and a lot of God's Word into God's kids!"

George passed into the arms of his loving Savior on May 21, 2016. The George Edgerly Memorial Scholarship continues the legacy of this great man of faith, honoring his humble generosity and passion for advancing the gospel of Jesus across the globe.
