

“The Blood Shed for You”

Kappa Tau Poetry

Ryler Evans

Marionville Assembly of God

28 Lines

Ruthless soldiers began to scourge and make fun
Of Jesus Christ, the Messiah, God the Son.
The sound in the air was a thundering CRACK
As the cat of nine tails clawed across His back.

With the first strike that tore off His flesh and skin,
Came the first of much blood that would cleanse all sin.
With all the beating and bleeding that took place,
His own mother could not recognize His face.

They forced Him up Calvary to crucify Him
While mocking, torturing, and jeering at Him.
Stretching His arms across the rough wooden frame,
They nailed Him to the cross without any shame.

At the darkest hour – the hour of three –
Jesus while gasping for air on the tree
Cried out to the Father with His final breath,
And He became subservient unto Death.

However, the sight of Victory was ahead,
For in three days the Son of Man rose from the dead
So that all creation could truly know
That He overcame Death His greatest foe.

Now if you're a sinner hurting and depressed
And by the Devil are in chains and oppressed,
Listen! This can be your liberating hour,
For the blood of Jesus has saving power!

Receive salvation to be free from your pain
Then Christ will redeem you and break every chain!
Thus, you will be made completely anew
Because He shed His precious blood for you!