

ASSEMBLIES OF GOD YOUTH MINISTRIES

As another season of Fine Arts approaches, let us take a moment to consider the “why” behind this ministry. Why practice so hard to develop ministry gifts? Why invest by participating in a Section, District, or National festival? Why allow yourself to be evaluated? Why try to decipher evaluator comments, and why wait on pins and needles to find out what rating you have received? What is the “why” behind Fine Arts?

Simply put, the “why” behind Fine Arts is to spread the gospel. Second Corinthians 5:20 reads, “We are therefore Christ’s ambassadors, as though God were making his appeal through us. We implore you on Christ’s behalf: Be reconciled to God.” Everyone who has received Christ as Savior has been commissioned to be an ambassador for Christ. God is making His appeal through you. He is telling the world the good news about Jesus, and He is doing it through you!

How does this connect with Fine Arts? Fine Arts is ultimately about spreading the gospel because whether you sing, play an instrument, dance, design, act, or speak, you can be gospel-centered, Spirit-empowered, and personally responsible for the mission of God. There are people all around us who need Christ. They may be in the audience as you sing, act, or preach; they may be in your dance studio; they may be in an art gallery viewing your designs. As these people interact with students like you who are using their ministry gifts, they are actually interacting with an ambassador for Christ.

As you approach your Fine Arts presentations this year, let this goal be on your mind and direct your path. Use this ministry as an opportunity to discover, develop, and ultimately to deploy your ministry gifts in a world that needs Jesus. Allow the Lord to sharpen your gifts to their fullest potential. Commit to being an ambassador for Christ: a student who is gospel-centered, Spirit-empowered, and personally responsible for the mission of God. Together, let us follow Colossians 3:17, “And whatever you do, whether in word or deed, do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.”

GENERAL INFORMATION

INFORMATION

The General Information section applies to all Kappa Tau participants.

For information pertaining to your district festival, contact your district youth director or district Fine Arts coordinator.

PURPOSE

Kappa Tau: College Fine Arts is a discipleship tool of the Assemblies of God Youth Ministries (AGYM) designed to help students discover, develop, and deploy their ministry gifts.

Although competitive elements are present, providing a competition venue is not the primary mission of the Fine Arts Festival. Through Fine Arts Festival, students are given the opportunity to have their skills evaluated by qualified ministers, industry professionals, and educators who encourage excellence, offer ideas for improvement, and inspire students to use their gifts in the local church, community, and around the world in ministry or secular vocation. Scores are not as important as lessons learned, experience gained, and skills developed.

RULES AGREEMENT

Kappa Tau (KT) participants must read and abide by this 2019 Kappa Tau Rule Book. It is the responsibility of each participant to be familiar with the rules and procedures of this festival. No other person may be held responsible for a participant's lack of information.

By signing a District and/or Orlando19 registration form and attending or participating in a festival, pastors, leaders, parents, and students acknowledge that:

1. They have read, understand, and agree to abide by the rules of this festival.
2. They will accept the decisions of the evaluators and coordinators as final.

DISTRICT FINE ARTS FESTIVALS

Kappa Tau participants are not required to participate in nor receive an advancing rating from a district festival. Some districts do offer Kappa Tau categories at their district festivals for students wishing to receive additional experience. Contact your district office for specific information on availability of Kappa Tau categories and how to register for your local festival(s).

Visit www.faf.ag.org for district contact information.

It is the participant's responsibility to contact their district office for specifics regarding the district festival. NFAF is not responsible for rules, policies, or category variations specific to district festivals.

PARTICIPANT REQUIREMENTS

Kappa Tau: College Fine Arts is open to all Christian students who meet the following criteria:

1. Participating students must be 18 to 23 years of age and no longer enrolled in high school as of September 1, 2018.
2. Participants must be in good standing with a local AG church and/or AG student ministries organization (e.g., Chi Alpha, Masters Commission, or AG University).

Kappa Tau participants do not need to qualify at a district Fine Arts festival to register for the National Fine Arts Festival. However, some districts do offer a Kappa Tau division. Contact your local coordinators for more information.

EVALUATION PROCESS AND RATINGS

Three qualified evaluators, chosen for their education, expertise, and impartiality, evaluate each presentation using the following general criteria:

- Selection
- Communication
- Presentation and Technique
- Overall Effectiveness

At the NFAF, an average of the scores from three evaluators determines the rating of each entry.

The following ratings are given to presentations at the national level of evaluation:

Up to 25 points	Fair
26–30 points	Good
31–35 points	Excellent
36–40 points	Superior
-2 points	Time Violation
-2 points	Rule Violation

The following awards are given at the national level of evaluation. Entries must have received a “Superior” on their initial presentation to be eligible for awards.

Official Categories

Award of Merit	One trophy per group/solo entry and one certificate per individual
Top 3	Entry name recognized at Celebration Service
Top 10	Posted online following the festival

Official Jr. Categories

Award of Excellence	One trophy per group/solo entry and one certificate per individual
Top 3	Entry name recognized at Celebration Service
Top 10	Posted online following the festival

Exhibition Categories

Honorable Mention	One trophy per group/solo entry and one certificate per individual Entry name recognized at Celebration Service Posted online following the festival

At the NFAF, callbacks may be conducted in categories with a large number of entries. Callbacks are issued to a top percentage or number of the entries receiving a “Superior” rating. Callbacks serve to assist the evaluators in choosing the Assemblies of God National Award of Merit, Award of Excellence, and Honorable Mention recipients.

Presentations must receive a “Superior” rating to be considered for a callback or any other award. However, receiving a “Superior” does not automatically qualify a student for a callback or other award. Neither evaluation sheets nor certificates are distributed for callback presentations.

The rating that NFAF participants receive during their initial presentation(s) is the rating reflected on the evaluation sheets and certificate(s) distributed at the NFAF and is the rating that serves as the permanent record for scholarship verification (in addition to any NFAF awards received).

All evaluation sheets and certificates must be picked up by noon Saturday, August 3, 2019 at the on-site Certificate Booth and retained for future scholarship verification. No attempt is made after the NFAF to return materials not collected on-site. The NFAF cannot print score sheets or certificates postfestival.

CODE OF CONDUCT

NFAF maintains a high standard for its participants and attendees. Parents, leaders, students, and guests involved in this festival should be committed to the ministry and should represent Christ in their behavior.

Parents, leaders, students, and guests are expected to demonstrate integrity, respect, and support for all other churches, teams, evaluators, participants, and volunteers. An overly competitive attitude, rudeness, or unsportsmanlike conduct is not acceptable and is considered grounds for dismissal.

NFAF provides volunteers who operate as auxiliary staff for the festival. These volunteers give their time and resources and work long hours throughout the week to serve students and the festival. Any rude behavior including verbal/physical abuse directed toward volunteer staff will not be tolerated and may result in disqualification and dismissal of parents, leaders, students, and guests.

It is the responsibility of all NFAF participants and attendees to leave a positive impression at the facilities and on the people with whom we work. Therefore, any participant or attendee showing disrespect for people or property in the host city may be disqualified and dismissed from the NFAF.

DRESS CODE

Appropriate dress is required for all entries—keeping category norms, intended audience, and ministry effectiveness in mind.

EQUIPMENT PROVIDED

For a list of equipment provided and allowed audio formats at your district festival, contact your district youth director or district Fine Arts coordinator.

For a list of equipment provided and approximate stage sizes at the NFAF, visit <http://faf.ag.org>.

Wherever possible, the NFAF provides all listed equipment and listed stage sizes. However, where space or other limitations exist, the NFAF reserves the right to remove or limit the availability of provided equipment and adjust stage sizes.

For presentations requiring audio, the NFAF only provides 3.5mm ( $\frac{1}{8}$ " ) audio plugs. Participants are responsible to bring a suitable device with 3.5 mm ( $\frac{1}{8}$ " ) audio jack in order to play their tracks.

USB drives and CDs are not accommodated.

ROOM CONFIGURATION

Every effort is made to provide adequate space for all presentations. However, be prepared to adjust your presentation according to room and stage sizes.

SCHOLARSHIP INFORMATION

Each institution determines and administrates their own application process and award amounts. Visit <http://colleges.ag.org> or contact the AG university or college of your choice for more information.

GENERAL RULES

The General Rules section applies to all Kappa Tau participants.

For General Rule questions pertaining to your district festival, contact your district youth director or district Fine Arts coordinator.

Read the category rules and evaluation criteria for each category in addition to the General Rules.

Category Rules govern the objective elements presentations must follow and are subject to rule violations if not followed.

Evaluation Criteria govern the subjective elements of a presentation and help define what the evaluators are looking for.

RULE AND TIME VIOLATIONS

Rule and time violations in any category receive a 2-point deduction per violation, per evaluator.

CONTENT

Whether through preaching, ASL, acting, dancing, singing, playing an instrument, sculpting, painting, or any other medium, the goal of the NFAF remains the same: spreading the gospel. Some categories naturally lend themselves to telling the message of the gospel while others are a celebration of ministry gifts within our students in whom that message resides. The following terms are meant to serve as a guide as you prepare your Fine Arts presentations.

Christian Message is defined as, “anything that reflects the message of Jesus.” We believe the Christian message is found in the person and the presentation. We believe “you can identify people by their actions” (Matthew 7:20, NLT). We want Christian students to glorify God with their ministry gifts in their presentation(s).

Evident Ministry is defined as, “a presentation that communicates a biblical truth.” Biblical truths are communicated in various ways through different mediums. Biblical truths can also be communicated through illustrations by assigning redemptive value. Please consult the category rules for clarity on which categories require Evident Ministry.

Redemptive Value is defined as, “using an illustration or prop to present a biblical truth which may be outside its original intended purpose.”

Overall Effectiveness is defined as, “a quality presentation that is deemed appropriate for this festival.”

AG Youth Ministries is providing an opportunity to receive feedback throughout the 2018–2019 season to determine what content is deemed appropriate for the national festival. We understand what is deemed appropriate can be interpreted differently based on cultural, geographical, and personal context. If you have a strong opinion regarding what is appropriate for the national festival, please share your thoughts by submitting this survey: <http://youth.ag.org/FAFSurvey>. Your opinion matters to us, and we want to provide an opportunity for you to share what is appropriate in your context.

To honor the diverse thought across our Fellowship, presentations including secular music will not be allowed to present on the National Fine Arts Festival/National Youth Convention evening stage as a preservice presentation or during the Celebration Service. Please contact your district regarding their guidelines on the use of secular music for district festivals.

The following content is never allowed in any Fine Arts presentation and will result in disqualification:

- a. Explicit songs, lyrics, text, scripts, or images
- b. Nudity
- c. Cursing
- d. Racial slurs and intentional/blatant racial insensitivity. Remember, you are ministering to a culturally and geographically diverse audience in Fine Arts.

TIME LIMITS

All scheduled events have time limitations (see specific category rules to find out time limits). Each presentation room has an official timekeeper. If a presentation exceeds the time limit, a 2-point deduction from each evaluator is assessed.

Time for setup begins when the name of the entry/participant is called as being “up” and the announcement is made that, “Your setup time begins now.”

Time for the presentation begins when a participant does or says anything to indicate the beginning of the presentation, including introductory remarks.

APPROVED LANGUAGES

Bilingual entries are not permitted.

Entries designated as American Sign Language categories must be presented entirely in American Sign Language. Entries not otherwise designated must be presented entirely in English.

Background vocals must be in the same language as the presentation.

GROUP ENTRY PARTICIPANT GUIDELINES

A group/ensemble entry is defined as a presentation given by two to ten students.

SUBSTITUTIONS

If a Kappa Tau group has already registered and needs to make a substitution please follow the directions below:

1. There can only be a post registration substitution if the original group member is paid in full. The Fine Arts office is unable to process new payments after the registration deadline.
2. Please submit a completed Orlando19 substitution registration form (available at <http://orlando19.ag.org/>) whether the substitute is already registered for the national festival or not. Send the completed form either by fax (855.611.8959) to the Fine Arts office or e-mail it to faf@ag.org.
3. Substitutions may be sent in through July 12, 2019. Substitutions may also be made at On-Site Check-In on Tuesday, July 30.

ENTRY LIMIT GUIDELINES

A participant or group of participants may not enter the same category of a division twice. There is no limit to the number of different categories in each division for which a participant may register.

There is no limit to the number of qualified entries from one church.

LICENSE

NFAF attendees and/or participants, by their signature on the national registration form, grant permission to The General Council of the Assemblies of God and to Assemblies of God Youth Ministries to use the registrant's image(s) and to photograph, reproduce, edit, publish, and/or record any musical, dramatic, artistic, photographic, and/or written presentation at the NFAF without compensation to the registrant, author, or creator of the work for the purpose of promoting the NFAF and/or Assemblies of God Youth Ministries. The author or creator of any entry used retains copyright ownership.

INTRODUCTORY COMMENTS

The following rule applies to any presentation, in any category, in any division that uses music. Before beginning the presentation, participants must introduce their music selection(s) by stating the title(s), name of the artist/composer, and arranger (if known). If the piece was composed or arranged by the student, that should be stated. Introductory comments DO NOT count toward the setup or presentation time limits. Comments must be minimal. Do not make other comments like a testimonial or justification for choosing the song(s); 15 to 20 seconds is sufficient. Use this format: "Hello, my name is (or our group name is) _____ and I/we have chosen to use "Song Title" by song writer(s) (and "Song Title" #2 by song writer(s), and "Song Title" #3 by song writer(s) [if applicable]) for our presentation."

COPYRIGHTED MATERIAL

It is the responsibility of the students, parents, and youth leaders to be completely legal and ethical in their conduct regarding copyrighted music, scripts, or any other original published or unpublished works. All NFAF participants should follow these guidelines:

- a. Never use digital or printed copies of music or scripts to avoid purchasing original materials.
- b. Never use software, sound files, video clips, quotes, or any other copyrighted work for your presentation without obtaining the copyrights or the explicit written permission from the publisher or creator. Always give appropriate credit to the author or creator for all copyrighted materials used to create your Fine Arts festival entries.
- c. Never use unpublished music or scripts without written permission from the author or creator of the work.
- d. Splicing should only be done after obtaining the proper license or permission of the copyright owner(s).
